

A Salvation Church.

A movement is on foot to erect a Salvation tabernacle in Sedalia, this spring, and from the favor with which the project has been received, there is little doubt that it will be carried out. That such a project ought to receive the hearty co-operation of every Christian, no one can doubt. The majority of the converts of the Salvation Army are of a class who, while the most earnest that can be found, yet need a watchful care and helping hand to keep them in the right course. Surrounded by greater temptations through the influence of associates, subjected to greater hardships and privations, destined mainly to a life which affords less reasons for thankfulness than they have been created, and therefore to less appreciation and conception of the benignity and greatness of their creator. It is only by the exercise of a stronger faith, and a more active work than that of the more pleasantly situated that they can keep alive the new born love and life instilled by Christian teachings.

It is true, that their credit and reward will be greater in the end if they hold out faithfully, because of their greater victory which shall make the least the greatest and the last first. But it is due them, it is due Christianity, it is due the glory of God that to him who has been given the greater advantages, the ten talents, that they should be fully exercised and developed in aiding the weaker or the more needing. Hence it is that every Christian should lend his aid in establishing this people upon a firm footing and firm basis. The BAZOO is informed that John Lamm has offered to donate a lot for the edifice and $100 towards its construction. Mrs. Dr. Goodwin and a number of others have offered substantial aid towards its construction, and it is certain that if "Happy Adam" and the army will go forward in their simple faith with their efforts they will soon have a sufficient fund to construct an ample edifice.

To Be Wedded.

Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Lou Eva Walker and George Longan, both of this city. The ceremony will be performed at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Feb. 22d at 8 p. m. Both are well-known and popular young people and the BAZOO congratulates them on their coming happiness.

Burglarized.

Unknown thieves entered the store of G. N. Stone at California, Mo., Wednesday night, through a back window and carried off a quantity of tobacco and cigars. The burglary is believed to be the work of a gang of tramps west bound, but there is no positive clue.

For All Nervous Troubles.

"Benson's" Caprine Plasters relieved my sciatica."—Congressman Guenther, of Wisconsin. 25c.

Married.

Geo. A. Stewart, a young man who resides and is well-known in this county, was wedded last night at Siche's hotel to Miss Louisa A. Elliott, of Des Moines, Iowa. Justice Marvin performed the ceremony in a very happy manner. The newly married couple will leave for the north this morning.

Hersford's Acid Phosphate.

Beware of Imitations. Imitations and counterfeits have again appeared. Be sure that the word "Hersford's" is on the wrapper. None are genuine without it.

Bound for Washington.

Caddo Jake of the Caddoes, Lone Wolf of the Kiowas and Little John of the Snakes, three big Indian chiefs with long hair, paint, blankets, and a strong smell passed through the city last night enroute to Washington, D. C., to see Mr. Cleveland and say "howdy!"

No More Profane Music.

The Catholic clergy of this diocese have received orders from Archbishop Ryan to instruct the choirs of their respective churches that no music not especially written for the church shall be sung at any church service. All operatic music, and many popular compositions whose scores have been adapted to the words of the service, are included and will be banished.

A decision in this matter has been expected from the archbishop for several weeks past, and musical circles have been on tiptoe for the final word. The decision will materially effect the services of a great number of churches. All the brilliant overtures, sweet interludes and grand choruses that have become a part and parcel of the church service will be dropped, and the splendidly trained choirs that for years have filled the sacred edifices with the lovely melodies and grand harmonies of the masters will devote their art to the interpretation of plainer and more sacred subjects that please the simple-minded and devout.

COUNTY COURT.The Regular Monthly Meeting Yesterday, Road Overseers' Annual Settlement.

County court met in regular session yesterday with Judges Boeker and Anderson present.

It was ordered that the personal tax assessment of John Kreal for 1886, be reduced to $228; also that the tax on twenty-one acres of the west half of the Southeast quarter of the southeast quarter and the west corner of the east half of the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 29, township 45, range 20, be reduced to $220, and that the tax on the short east quarter of the southwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 12, township 45, range 20, be reduced to $965. Also, that the tax assessed upon Charles Hyde upon a note for $500, be cancelled, the same being erroneous.

TAX ASSESSMENTS.

It was ordered that the following tax assessments be changed:

On the personal property of Chas. Oman for 1886 to $20.

On the north east quarter of section 11, township 44, range 23, stricken from the docket the same having been paid.

On the north east quarter and north west quarter of the south east quarter of section 29, township 46, range 22, reduced to $7.00 per acre.

On 90x125 feet on the north west corner of block forty five and 90x125 in the central part of the west half of block two Jackson and Montgomery's addition to Sedalia reduced to $120.

On twenty acres, the west part of the south west quarter of the north west quarter of section 35 township 48, range 21 reduced to $126.

On the north half of the west half of Section 21 township 47 range 20, reduced to $425.

On lot one block twelve Cotton Bros. addition to Sedalia reduced to $100.

On 400 acres in section 32, township 48, range 21 reduced to $3440.

Ordered that the tax assessment for 1886 against the London, Liverpool, Globe, Imperial, Westchester, Glen Falls and New York fire insurance companies, he cancelled the same having been erroneously made.

Ordered the clerk enter satisfaction on the mortgages given as security for loans from the school fund by T. B. Penberton and J. C. Hatton, the same having been paid.

Ordered that commissioner, J. C. Johnson proceed to make estimates for a bridge in section 30, range 45, township 23.

Court adjourned to February 17 inst.

A South Line.

From a gentleman who came up from Hickory county yesterday, the BAZOO learns that the citizens of that locality are jubilant over the prospect of a direct railroad connection with Sedalia, early in the coming spring. They feeling assured that the narrow gauge will be widened and extended from Sedalia to Springfield in a very short time. The basis of their faith, the gentleman stated, is the fact that a surveying corps are now laying a line from Springfield to Warsaw on an almost direct line via Bolivar. He further stated that he had seen the parties and in conversation with them learned that they expected to reach Sedalia via Warsaw in about two weeks and that the road was to be a part of a line owned and controlled by the Missouri Pacific system, whose southern terminus was to be at Memphis where it would connect with a New Orleans line. North, it would go as far as Sedalia, but what direction it would take from there he could not learn, but from the best information he could gather it was the intention to make connections or build a new road which would reach north to the lakes somewhere up in Minnesota. The gentleman seemed very sanguine of the rapid and early completion of the line, and from what is known here there is little doubt that his theory and statements are substantially correct.

Interstate Commerce.

Omaha Republican.

The President has signed the interstate commerce bill, and it is now the law of the land. All constitutional objections to the bill having been removed by its examination the President had but the one thing to do—sign it. Popular clamor and the overwhelming majority by which Congress referred it to him made his approval incumbent. The law, however, at best, is only a venture; it is an experiment, which, when put to the practical test, will prove that additional legislation will be required before it can be practically useful, or before it can be made to subserve the interests of the people while conserving those of the railroads, which it is presumed is the intent of the law.

THE JAIL RECORD.Who is Confined in The Pettis County Jail and What For.

There are at present eighteen inmates of Sheriff Murray's hotel, nine of whom are awaiting the action of the grand jury, eight are serving sentences and one is awaiting a preliminary hearing to-day.

THE GRAND JURY CASES.

are as follows: Thomas Moore, charged with playing the confidence game. His forte was the insurance business, in which, as agent of a company, he manufactured and forwarded to the company bogus policies and notes, receiving in return therefor the premium on the policies. He was committed by Justice Blair.

Wm. O'Brien is charged with burglary and larceny, as is also his pal Wm. Mahew, both are tramps and were arrested and committed from Dresden by Justice Baldwin for having broken into and robbed a farm house.

Samuel Fleming is a bad con, he is awaiting trial for carrying concealed weapons and with making an assault to kill therewith upon Wm. Robinson, also colored in Lincolnville. He was committed from Justice Halstead's court.

Andrew Holland is another member of the genus tramps charged with larceny from a dwelling house and committed from Justice Downs court in Houstonia.

John Parker, alias Texas Charlie, or Texas Parker, is a well known character and about the toughest of the gang, he was sent up from Justice Fishers court for attempting to burn up the city jail. He is charged with arson in the first degree.

Jerry McBowen and his pal, George Gammon, are ex-members of the Salvation Army, and ex-convicts. They are very tough knots and joined the army, as they expressed it, "to make a raise." Not finding it profitable enough, they got up a bogus subscription paper, which led to their arrest, and committal to answer to the charge of obtaining money by means of a confidence game.

TIME SERVERS.

The following are serving out jail sentences:

Fred Jones, sentenced by Justice Blair for petit larceny; his term expires February 22.

Jack Brown sentenced from the same court on the same charge; term expires February 22.

Jos. Bird, sentenced from Justice Halstead's court on same charge; time expires February 15.

Harry Wise sentenced by Justice Halstead for carrying concealed weapons, term expires February 20.

Charles Means from the same court on the same charge term expires February 15.

Dolly Barnham sentenced from Justice Downs court at Houstonia for petit larceny term expires March 20.

Tony Grant sentenced by Justice Marvin for petit larceny term expires March 11.

Wm. Ellis sentenced on the same charge by Justice Fisher term expires February 16.

Al Dyer sent up from the criminal court for six months for assault to kill term expires May 12.

James Turner the remaining inmate is held for a preliminary hearing on the charge of burglary and larceny, he being charged with having broken into E. G. Cassaday's beer warehouse and abstracting therefrom two kegs of beer.

Rushville to the Rescue.

Yesterdays Jefferson City Tribune gives a column of its valuable space to W. S. Wells, of Rushville, Mo., to detail what he terms a history of the locating of the capitol in Jefferson City and an argument in favor of its remaining there, which boiled down, simply is that because the capitol is in Jefferson City and was located there sixty years ago it ought to stay there. W. S. Wells is a carpenter who formerly lived in Jefferson City and left there because, he said, he could not make a living there. He is now located in Rushville Little Rushville. Mr. Wells according to his own argument should be in Jefferson City which he left ten years ago, because he came there twenty years ago.

Petition for Divorce.

The Post-Dispatch has the following in reference to former residents of this county. The complainant was formerly Miss Eva Buffington and was before her marriage well liked and respected, having many friends in and near Lamonte.

Mrs. Eva Clow filed a petition to-day in the circuit court seeking a decree of divorce from Herman Clow. They were married in Pettis county in May, 1875. Mrs. Clow complains that for several years her husband has endeavored to bring about a separation, and has done everything in his power to render her life a burden and misery. In 1882 her father gave her $75 for the purchase of a watch. This angered her husband, and, although she only spent a portion of the money for the watch, he threatened to throw it in the stove, and said that she had to choose between the watch and herself. He refused to speak to her for days together, and would not sit in the same room but forced her to keep out of the parlor and locked the door. She further alleges that he insulted her in the presence of the children and the neighbors, said that she was not fit to raise little ones, and wounded her feelings constantly by taunts and sneers. To others he remarked that he was hunting for new pastures and was gradually kicking out of the traces at home. Mrs. Clow further alleges that her husband taught the children to disobey her and hold her in contempt. She asks for the custody of the youngest child Mary, and for alimony.

Sedalia is making a determined effort to secure the removal of the state capital from Jefferson City to the great railroad center in Pettis county. She has filed her bond for $3,000 in the secretary of state's office to be devoted to the payment of all expenses of submitting the removal amendment to a vote of the state. The resolution requiring the removal amendment to be submitted is to be considered next Thursday. It stipulates that the amendment if voted is to go into effect in 1893 and not then unless the city shall have given a good and sufficient warranty deed to 40 acres of land in the city and shall have paid into the state treasury the sum of $300,000 to aid in the erection of suitable state buildings. This is a fair proposition. An appropriation of $250,000 is asked of the present legislature for the purpose of repairing our present capitol at Jefferson City, and when this much money is spent on the structure it will still a relic of the past ages and wholly inadequate to the uses for which it is put. It has not enough offices for the state departments. It has no rooms for committee meetings. It has no modern conveniences, and though it were repaired the city in which it stands would remain an eyesore to every Missourian that has any pride in his state. Compare our seat of government with that of Illinois or Iowa. Sedalia can be improved and will make a beautiful city in which our visitors would be proud to spend a day. How is it at Jefferson? As soon as he was landed, every visitor asks, "When does the next train start?" Sedalia will grow and be some indication of the thrift and enterprise of our state. In the matter of accessibility, Sedalia is far ahead, as every one from North Missouri and South Missouri, too, who has ever had any business in Jefferson City will be glad to testify.—Hannibal Journal.

Manning's Opinion.

Kansas City Star.

Secretary Manning has expressed his opinion on the fisheries difficulty. He dissents from the opinion held by the sanguinary Senator of Kansas. He would not adopt retaliation measures, and he believes that the trouble can be settled without war. The Secretary is correct. However much the people may want a war they do not need it for mere vengeance—for that would be largely the American feeling—nor would they be benefited by a war. When a nation goes to war it is the masses—the common people who have little to gain by war—who become the victims. There is considerable irritation in this country toward England and not a few would welcome war, but in the pending trouble arbitration and not arms should prevail.

"There the common sense of most should hold impetuous realm in awe."

An Indiana Horror.

Fort Wayne, Feb. 9.—Ten miles northeast of Warsaw, just west of here a party of hunters to-day found the mutilated remains of Perry Dunham near his residence. In his house, they discovered a little two-year-old girl dead. Mrs. Dunham was alive but so badly cut as to be insensible, the hoofs had eaten Dunham's feet and horribly mutilated him. Mrs. Dunham has eight wound all made with a knife. The child's throat was cut from ear to ear and it lay on the floor some six feet from its mother. The theory of the murder is that it was done for robbery as a few days ago Dunham sold two hundred bushels of wheat for $120 and some calves for $100 only nine dollars of this money was found in the house. Another theory is that Dunham was insane and after murdering his wife and child committed suicide.

A NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

When one has been suffering the agonies of a severe attack of rheumatism, neuralgia or sciatica, and relief comes, it seems as if a new lease of life had been granted. Such have been the feelings of thousands who, after trying physicians and numberless remedies, have used Athlophoros and found to their great joy that this medicine really did cure these diseases.

At Dubuque, Iowa, the druggists say Athlophoros beats them all. We thought it would be like many other rheumatic medicines that have been put on the market, sell for a while then gradually sink out of our memory. But such is not the case with Athlophoros, instead of our sales diminishing they increase, and what makes us have more faith in its future mission is that our customers come back and praise its good work in the highest terms. Said one druggist to the writer: "My confidence is so great in Athlophoros that I often sell a bottle with the understanding that if it is not satisfactory I will refund the money. I have never yet had to pay the money back." Mrs. C. J. Alaback, 1067 Clay Street, Dubuque, Iowa, says: "I was subject to frequent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism and have been nearly all my life, at times I would be almost helpless. When I commenced with the Athlophoros I was carrying my arm in a sling, I could not move my fingers without causing me pain. One evening while suffering this way I heard of Athlophoros. The next day I sent for a bottle. I was a little afraid of it at first on account of the buzzing sensation it caused in my head, but it worked like a charm, the swelling and the pain were gone, my rheumatism was well. It is now a year and a half, and I have not suffered any since."

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, etc., Athlophoros Pills are unequalled.

PATTI'S PERIL.A San Francisco Dynamiter Attempts Her Life but Nearly Takes His Own.

San Francisco, Feb. 10.—A crank at 10 o'clock last night while Patti was singing, attempted to throw a dynamite bomb or some other explosive on the stage. The matter exploded in his hands, injuring him severely. Although the house was crowded there was no panic. The police immediately rushed into the gallery and arrested the would-be dynamiter and removed him to the hospital, where his injuries are being treated. It is supposed he objected to Patti's high prices.

The dynamite immediately afterward sang, "Home, Sweet Home," apparently unaware that an attempt had been made on her life. When the bomb exploded a panic was narrowly averted. People in the gallery were rushing about seeking the quickest means of exit, and it was only by the self-possession of the newspaper man present in a box, coupled with that of the dynamite, that a stampede of the entire house was prevented.

The bomb thrower later said he stooped to pick up his hat and came and found a package under the seat, which he picked up, and that as he raised it to see what it was, it exploded. Though he was badly burned about the face and hands it is believed he received no serious injuries. He gave his name as Dr. James Hodges, a dyspepsia specialist, and his residence as No. 4 Central place, and his age as 71 years.

The bomb was made of a can filled with powder, in the centre of which was a bottle. The can was wrapped in pieces of cloth soaked in inflammable oil, and it is believed the intention was not only to kill Patti and those near the stage, but also to set fire to the building. It was arranged to explode by a number of friction matches, which connected with the fuse inserted in the powder. The theory is that the fuse burned too quickly for the crank.
